PERROW— In memory of our Dear Mother, Nancy Liggon Perrow who passed away Sept. 14, 1925.
What would we give her hand
To clasp, her patient face to see;
To hear her voice, to see her smile
That in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife, and
Clasp each other's hands once more
In Heaven, that happy life.
—Sadly missed by son and daughter: C. F. Perrow & Sister.

APPOMATTOX HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Barbara Ann Johnson, Reporter

How is everyone feeling this week? I've been noticing that some of us look a little droopy after last week. I hope it wasn't too hard to get back to work.

Homecoming was a big success and enjoyed by students, alumni, and, I hope, by faculty members. Our speakers were interesting and each student received something from the talks. We thank the speakers for giving us a portion of their time.

We wish to thank the Camp Pickett Band for making our parade complete and helping the cheering section at the football game.

The Appomattox High School football team Bedford High School to a scoreless tie, to make the homecoming game an tense and exciting one. Our boys put up a fine fight and did a splendid job of holding their opponents once on the three yard line. We are proud of our team and only wish that they could have crashed over for a touchdown.

The next game is tomorrow night at Altavista at 8:00 o'clock. We hope many of you will go and support your team.

Have you planned your costume for the Hallowe'en Festival? Nice prizes will be given for individuals of all ages, and for couples. The P.-T. A. has planned a complete evening of entertainment October 31. Don't miss it.

We almost did not recognize some of our alumni last Friday night. Dick and Harry really looked swell in their uniforms but they didn't look like the old Marks and Lawson of A. H. S. We hope they are doing O. K. at U. Va.

We were very glad to see Bolly Conner and Dick Carter home, and also Carl and Ann Taylor. We hope they will visit us often.

We had Chapel yesterday. The Rev. J. Marshall Walker gave an interesting talk. The students will miss him and wish him success in his new location.

That's about all for this week, but as we go through this week and all the rest, let us keep this quotation in mind:
"And when the Great Scores comes
To write against your name,
He'll ask not if you won or lost,
But how you played the game."

Editor's Note: Miss Barbara Ann Johnson is official Times-Virginian reporter at the Appomattox school, and we ask that all school clubs and organizations, and others having school news to hand their news copy to Miss Johnson. It is easier for us to handle schools news if it is cleared through one person. It will help Miss Johnson if reporters have their articles written and ready for publication by Tuesday mornings of the week it is to appear in the paper. We are glad to publish school news and hope this simplified way of handling it will help all concerned.
